List of Projects I Built at TSC

- Built multiple three-page websites that collected user information and images and stored them in a database.
- Built a tool that allowed internal users to update customer information as needed.
- Built a location-tracking tool that allowed users to scan an item and determine where it should go.
- Built a central hub that allowed internal users to access all of a client's tools, make necessary changes, and download relevant information.